

Connecting Parents to Educational Opportunities

Participating parents will receive the following incentives if they attend at least six of the seven CPEO training sessions:

- Certificate of completion of the program
- Certificate for a free Community Education class
- Certificate for a free Early Childhood Family Education class
- Certificate of recognition from the University of Minnesota and possibility of scholarship (U Promise) from the University of Minnesota for your children that can be redeemed based on specific admission qualifications and family income requirements.
- Certificate of recognition from the Minneapolis Community and Technical College (MCTC) and possibility of scholarship (POWER of U) from the MCTC for your children that can be redeemed based on specific admission qualifications and family income requirements.